

Ohio County Public Library, Wheeling WV
Job Posting
August 30, 2021

Due to the retirement of our long time, well respected, and deeply admired Director, the Board of Trustees of the Ohio County Public Library in Wheeling, WV, seeks an energetic and community-minded librarian to direct the library with creativity and professionalism. The oldest established public library in West Virginia, OCPL has a dedicated and experienced staff, and a statewide reputation for dynamic programs and services, supported with an equally dynamic webpage, <https://www.ohiocountylibrary.org/>.

In the northern panhandle of West Virginia, Ohio County is home to thriving communities of businesses, families and individuals that value education and libraries. OCPL serves a population of 42,000 with an operating budget of $ 1.8 million and a staff of 15 full time and 7 part time employees.

Minimum qualifications are a Master's Degree in Library/Information Science from an ALA accredited program and five years progressively responsible administrative roles. Experience working in management, budget and financing, personnel administration, facilities management, and familiarity with library automation are highly desirable. Salary range begins at $67,000 and is commensurate with experience. An excellent benefit package is included.

Qualified applicants may send a letter of interest, their resume, and three professional references, to boardchairman@ohiocountylibrary.org. Closing date is October 22, 2021.
